EVALUATION

The Society's financial status is good. There was little change from 1966; income was down $900, expenses were down $400, and income over expense was down $500. Publication costs and postage expenses will increase in 1968. The following proposed budget is offered for 1968:

Journal	$6,000.00
News	1,500.00
Miscellaneous	300.00
	$7,800.00

There are no outstanding bills for 1967.

Respectfully submitted,
Roy O. Kendall, Treasurer

NOTICES

Lepidopterists' Society members may use this section free of charge to advertise their offerings and needs in Lepidoptera. The Editors reserve the right to rewrite notices for clarity or to reject unsuitable notices. We cannot guarantee any notices but all are expected to be bona fide. #### NEWS NOTES

REPRINTS of scarce entomological works are being published by E. W. Classey. Ready now are the series on the Genitalia of the British Lepidoptera. Other works, such as the Revised Handbook of the British Lepidoptera and Meyrick's Exotic Microlepidoptera, may be re-printed later. Write to E. W. Classey, 353 Henworth Rd., Hampton, Middlesex, ENGLAND, for details and prices.

FOR ARIZONA COLLECTORS: Dr. G. F. Franclemont, of Cornell, reports finding very convenient accommodations at the Cave Creek Ranch, Cave Creek Canyon, Arizona. This is in the Chiricahua Mts. Inquiries sent to the ranch will doubtless bring further information.

The Nineteenth Annual Meeting of The Lepidopterists' Society will be held June 15 - 18 in Washington, D. C., at the Museum of Natural History. The program will proceed as follows:

June 15 (Saturday)	Registration 10 A.M., Natural History Bldg. Open House 1 - 5 p.m.
June 16 (Sunday)	Field Trip
June 17 - 18 (Mon.-Tues)	Presentation of Papers
June 18 (Tuesday)	Banquet, 7 p.m., Museum of History and Technology

The first day of papers will be largely devoted to discussions on the phenomenon of Polymorphism in Lepidoptera with Dr. H. B. D. Kettlewell of Oxford, England, as the principal speaker. The second day will feature an invitational address by Dr. H. E. Hinton, of Bristol, England. Those desiring to attend or participate in the meetings should return the form below no later than APRIL 1, 1968! Except where specifically solicited, all papers will be limited to 20 minutes presentation followed by 5 minutes discussion. Because of the number of invitational speakers, it may not be possible to accept all papers submitted at large, but every effort will be expended to do so.
