Department of the Interior,

Washington, August 24, 1892.

Othniel Marsh of Connecticut is hereby appointed a Paleontologist in the Geological Survey at a salary of Two Thousand dollars per annum, to take effect July 1, 1892, by reduction from Paleontologist at $4000, to fill an original vacancy.

Permanent Force.

[Signature]

[Signature] Acting Secretary.
Department of the Interior,
Washington, August 24, 1892.

W. Thomas C. Marsh.

Owing to a necessary reduction of the force, your services as a Paleontologist of 2000 in the Geological Survey, Permanent Force, are hereby dispensed with from and after August 4, 1892, until which date you are granted leave of absence.

Very respectfully,

Grover Cleveland
Acting Secretary.

Through the
Director of Geological Survey.