Prof. O. C. Marsh, New Haven

Dear Sir,

I must say that I feel ashamed to call once more on you for help, but the necessity compels me to do it.

The Express Co. asks $1.60 for the transportation of one hundred pounds of furniture from Batte to New Haven, say $37.96 for 2500 Pounds. I think it to be too high.

Being not able to pay so much just now, I would be very thankful if you would be responsible for me.
until the end of next Month—on which I expect some money from Switzerland. The fear to have expenses above my means was always the reason why I was delayed of getting my family to New Haven. I hope you will excuse me and I remain very respectfully your servant

Prof. O. C. Marsh:

Dear Sir:

As several bills were due yesterday, which will give me considerable trouble if not paid before the 3rd, you would oblige me very much, if you could settle my bill for finished work which I rendered to you yesterday, the amount of which is $118.50.

I would not have troubled you now, if Mr. Agassiz had not disappointed me. It being now three weeks since I sent him my bill.

Yours respectfully

Prof. C. C. Marsh, City

Gelehrter Herr!

Ich habe unsere Angelegenheit betreffs der Abgüsse der Pterodactyls nochmals wohl berechnet und ausgefunden, dass ich wirklich nach ihrem letzten Vorschlag kaum $2 - per Tag verdienen würde.

Dieses angeführte würde allein schon die Hälfte der von Ihnen genannten Summe verschlingen, ebensowenig die Zeit für Formen, Modell bis ich mit dem Gießen beginnen kann.

Ich will aber ihren Vorschlag in dieser Weise entgegen kommen und Ihnen dreissig Stücke für 150.-- machen, wovon Ihnen dann nach Abtretung von drei Copien an Herrn Agassiz 30.-- gekommen werden. Auf diese Weise kamen Ihnen das Modell mit 27 Copien auf nur 120.--

Dies ist doch gewiss ein fürchte annahmbarer Vorschlag.

Mit herzlichster Hochachtung
