Prof. O. O. Marsh
Dear Sir,

I send you by this mail two cans of bones from no. 9. There is a bone in one of them that Hilderton says is Protoceratops and another that we think is Bird and there is the Bone that I think is a small skull. I am not sure there is any mammal jaw in the shipment but several reptile jaws. I send shipping list for one B & H from 18 West all of the Small animal from the South end of the quarry and one good spirit and some Bones from the upper or north end. I uncovered a cask yesterday and a good one. I send you a drawing of it as it lay in the ground, it is in good preservation and will come out nice. I hope I shall find the head next.

Yours Truly

W. H. Reed

PS The small, brownian from the South end is all marked (L S) except the part put up in bales. So you will not get them mixed.

Dear Sir,

Enclosed please find shipping receipt for one Box Bones No. 68 it contains furan and limbs and flat and toe bones from 18 mast and I think you will find them new. I have taken up one jaw in 18 mast and send it by this mail. It is different from any thing I have taken up it was nearly long and I could only see tusks teeth it lay near the top of the pug died and was in poor preservation. I send also one can of jaws from No. 9 and I am sure there is some good mammals in it we struck a little pocket where they came.

Dear Sir,

I have found a specimen of Stegosaurus and I don't believe the bones I have identified belong to Stegosaurus especially the spines and the limb bones and toe bones I thought belong. They are of a new saurian. The Stegosaurus bones are all in the quarry. The quarry is now 76 feet long north and south.
and shows bones the full length the strata that carries the bones is from 3 to 4 feet thick with a hard sandstone bed rock there is about 3 feet of drift covering all and if you want the gypsum worked out it would pay to get a wagon and harness for there is many tons of bones more than has ever bin shipped from como and it is a tedious job to pack them all on horses yours truly
