MANUSCRIPT REVIEWERS, 1998

The merit of a scientific journal depends on the quality of its reviewers as well as its authors, but the former are usually unknown to the readers of the published articles. The Journal relied on the expertise of 60 reviewers last year to provide 66 evaluations of manuscripts. It is with much gratitude that the Journal acknowledges the services of the people listed below, from whom manuscript reviews were received in 1998. Those who reviewed two or more manuscripts are denoted by asterisks.
