

MANUSCRIPT REVIEWERS FOR 2001 (VOLUME 55)

Manuscript reviewers are anonymous contributors to the scientific rigor, clarity and quality of text and illustrations in the papers published by the Journal of the Lepidopterists' Society. The reviewers' input is always valuable, but their swift response was especially critical during a time when we needed to expedite the publication of volume 55. Let us hope such enthusiastic response continues to allow the Journal to grow in readership. On behalf of all authors and editorial staff of this Journal, respectful acknowledgements are given to the reviewers listed here. Asterisks denote those who reviewed two or more manuscripts.
