My dear Sir

I just finish now to pack your Collection.

I have done all the work myself, I am sure everything will reach you without damage.

You will find enclosed the list of what each box contains, the box N^o 9 contains 7 smaller boxes, on the cover of each one you will see the description of what is inside.

I wish if you would unprop the small boxes yourself, because some of them must be unpropd with care. I will send this afternoon everything as directed, the sum for freight and the small articles & Mummies per Express.

Will you be kind enough to let we know how this collection soon arrived after everything, will be unpacked

I oblige you respectfully.

My dear Sir

When I have sent the corn this noon I have omitted to pack and send with them the mummy clothes, I send them now in a warm wrapper well packed in a good bag lined with oil cloth.

Yours truly

Ch. Barriss.
