Prof Marsh
Sir

Yours came in Saturday 16th and I went then to work to hunt up a man by the name of Evans who had a few days before offered me Several odd numbers of the Contributions which you wanted. and when I had found him he wants Tindalls for Vol VII VIII. & X. then Banks or in good order. I have nothing on hand just now. cant find any as yet of Tiedy. Let me know what to do about the Evans Lab. spoken off. he will not break up these he have got. Just Thers. will offer the same to the Institution in a few days.
Yours Brown,

Washington Feb 9th 1869
Prof Marsh.

I have just handed to Expressman a Package of Bauls brought to me for you. Contains Vol VII and neck & Hayden. and Leidy. Repts. and I have Paid for them to a Mr Evans 4⁵⁰ Four dollars & fifty cents. I could not get them any cheaper and indeed he first asked $5 for them I hope you will be pleased with what I have done in your last Baul order as I have done the best I could. The other man says that he has come on a Barquin with you.

I am yours very Respt
J. G. Brown.

Mr Marsh

Dear Sir

I write in haste to say that your note containing the Post money order for Mr Evans came in due time but my being absent from the city on account of sickness was not handed me until after days ago. and I would not acknowledge it's same until I had found the owner. which I did but yesterday. I cannot at present locate up the man who had these Bonds for said owners to pressing engagements here as soon as I can I will have him send on to you the val. VII VIII & X your spoke aff.

I am yours very Respectfully
D. G. Brown

Prof O.C. Marsh

Dear Sir

Your letter came in on Saturday 8th and I went to work hunting up the val. you wanted and succeed in finding val. 788

Which I have now sent to you the 1st Box I paid knowing that you was away from home

The Cost & Charges are

4 val. nos @ 3 -	12 00
2 val. 275	5 50
Freight on 1 st Box. 150	(2 00
Convey 'in wash. 50.	$ 19 50 this amt- I have paid and for the Bould being the best I could do the Museum are very scarce - Sells for a good price,

Could not get the XIII, but will keep a look and if I would be glad to have a Post-money order rather than a check. avoid Post charges - always have trouble with Checks I am well known at the P.O.

Yours &c
