

Postmarked May 12, 1890

[1]

C

5 WEST FIFTY-FIRST STREET, NEW YORK.

My dear Professor

The great Books
have come; I don't believe there's anything in them which will please me more than the few words you have written upon the first page —

[3]

Wrote J. W. Brooks

so both are happy

I got all arranged in Littleton I now fix the gallery & Museum We have 50000 other years to spend in these years

[2]

I shall always be mind of these -
had a note from Spencer (I omit the Mr)
He hopes to do some work yet - don't forget you are to come to Chung of you ever
this year -
Mr C gets the

(4) which in a few hundred of years or so must fine it through something noble.
I attended the Committee with the Promoters Excess - knocked them flat - every one, told them the first thing that

[5]

went into the Museum was the best — the first Contribution made
by the first collector
of the world...
Our New Haven visit
is a bright spot
in our household
— Come & Coach.

& take home with
 you a rare specimen of the best of living things, a good, tender, sensible Roman, not too

old yours always

Andrew Carnegie
