13th March 1878.

My dear Sir.

I am exceedingly obliged to you for your kind remembrance in sending me a copy
of your address, which I have used with great profit - for

Professor Marsh.

what can be more
 profitable than to discover how ignorant
 we are - and to resolve to mend!

I hope some other Spring day
 will bring you again
 to the Flemish Interior
 at the Harpers.

and with renewed
 thanks I am very truly Yours
 George William Curtis.
