Prof. O. C. Marsh.

Dear Sir:

Replying to your favor of 30th inst. It is my impression that our bijou is now in the possession of the Bradaworth Athenaeum in Hartford to whom I presented it several years ago.
I will make inquiries, & if I find that we have any thing

Such as you describe, I think I can arrange to place it at your disposal.

Yours Truly

G. P. Davis

Prof O. C. Marsh,

Dear Sir:

I have instructed my man at the Townsend Ave. place to deliver to you the Cycas revoluta to which you ^{have} referred.

Will you accept it with the sincere compliments of Mrs Davis & Mrs Mitchell, the owners of the plant?

Yours truly,
G. P. Davis
