

7182
240 Montgomery Street
San Francisco

Dec 5th 1877

My dear Marsh

I am much obliged for the copy of your address before the American Association which I have read with interest.

Perhaps you will be interested in the enclosed recent contribution to the literature of Catastrophism in which great liberty is taken with you and Jemmyson. I consider it the latest impertinence offered to Science and Poetry.

Very Truly Yours
James D. Hague