UNIVERSITY CLUB,
MADISON SQUARE.

Oct. 7. '96

Dear Prof. Marsh,

On a flying
visit to this country
I would however
not think of leaving
it without having
asked you whether
I might have the pleasure of paying
you a visit and
of seeing something of your celebrated collections.

I am now on my way to Boston where I am expected next Saturday or Sunday
evening and will return at the end of that week from Boston
to Princeton to attend
the celebration there.
Now what would be more convenient

to you: my coming
to Newhaven on my way to or from Boston, say Oct. 10 or Oct 17/18?

Pray let me know
by one line which I will find at this club on Friday when I shall call for it.

Excuse my indecision: last year when I had the pleasure of meeting

you in Leyden you
encouraged me to be so!

Truly yours

Sam. Kibben

Dear Prof. Marsh,

It is a week since
I was your guest at Newhaven and since
I was allowed to throw a much too
rapid glance at the invaluable treasures
heaped up in the Peabody Museum.

Allow me to

9350

tell you once more
how especially I have appreciated your great kindness to me and
how that visit to Yale
will be one of the most memorable features of my American trip. I remained in Boston till yesterday evening and spent very pleasant hours with Minot and Agassiz

Hoping to see you
in Utrecht some day

I remain

Yours very sincerely

Reubrecht
