

OFFICE OF
 DR. J. ROBINSON.

Manhattan, N.Y. April 17th 1876

Prof Marsh

Mr Milliston has gone west and left the purchase of the Horn leaves, about which he has written you, with me. The parties possessing it have no idea what its value is but are holding off and refuse to sell it for any small sum.

What is the most you want to pay for it? They think they will receive a bid from you direct, having written you regarding it.

If you wish me to try to get it for you send me instructions re at once.

Very truly
 J. Robinson
