

C. R. SAVAGE,

15293

PUBLISHER OF VIEWS OF THE GREAT WEST

AND DEALER IN

PHOTOGRAPH AND ART MATERIALS, CHROMOS, ENGRAVINGS, PICTURE

FRAMES, MOULDINGS, ETC.

East Temple St., Salt Lake City, Aug 7th 1874

Friend Marsh -

I found the enclosed in Colorado - it is considered a great curiosity - I am told the impression is about $\frac{1}{2}$ of an inch deep in the face of the rock about 15 feet above the River -

It may possibly have been done by Indians - but it is ahead of their style by comparison with their other efforts -

Yours very truly
C. R. Savage
Have some fine views of Colorado now -