JAMES F. SPALDING.

*Principals.*NORTHAMPTON, MASS. March 15 1867.

Dear Sir,

Perhaps you may care to look at an article of mine on "The Great Schools of England," which I send you in the "Tribune". —

I shall always remember pleasantly my recent visit to New Haven. I only wish 't had been on more agreeable business — to us both.

I have spent a sabbath in Euclid since then. Aunt Marsh was very curious to know the object of my interview with you; but you may be sure I didn't tell her, & I hope you won't.

In haste,

I am

Very truly

Yours
J. F. Spalding-

Prof. O. C. Marsh;
