Dear Sir:

We have your letter in regard to the case consigned to F. B. Vandugriff Co.

That firm informs us that the case has already been examined by the Officers and consequently cannot be sent in bond to New Haven.

We shall be able to write you more fully in regard to the case tomorrow.

Yours truly,

Tice & Lynch.

TICE & LYNCH,

Custom House Brokers,

Commission and Forwarding Agents,

No. 45 WILLIAM STREET.

Passports Procured.

New York, June 29th, 1898.

Prof. C. Marsh,
Yale University.

Dear Sir:

We regretted for this to send you information of your case of specimens in Vandergrift's care but as they have entire charge of it, we have been unable to do anything towards hurrying it.

They advise us, this afternoon, that the case has not yet been opened, and they assure us that they have asked the Appraising Officer to have the best of care used in the handling of the case and contents.

It cannot be sent in bond now. In fact it could not have been forwarded "in bond" as the papers accompanying the shipment were not in shape to do it, without application to the Treasury Department at Washington, D.C. We shall urge Messrs. Vandergrift & Co. to hurry the case forward.

Yours truly,
Tice & Lynch.
