My dear Prof. Marsh,

I am at present spending a few days in the wilderness of Maine and have just returned from a fine days sport among the brook trout.

Remembering your fondness for this fish among fishes last year at "Henry's fork", I have this evening forwarded to your address a box containing about half a dozen. They were taken with a fly, and you can imagine the amount of sport which the three pounds gave

I, from this time forth, touch never to advance an argument in favor of the worm.

The fish should reach you about Saturday afternoon, enquiries at the Express office, as remaining there over Sunday will not improve their flavor.

Hoping they may reach you in due season I am

Respectfully Yours
