

18176

Hartford [1883]
November 13th

Dear Mr Marsh,

We much regret that we cannot accept your kind invitation to meet the National Academy at your beautiful home, but
Mr. Welling is now at Washington, and

We much and our regrets that we cannot be among your guests.
I hope we shall see you in Washington during the coming winter.

With kindest regards
in which Bessie joins me, Believe me,

Sincerely Your cousin
L. J. Belling-
Prof. O. C. Marsh