Prof Marsh

Dear Sir

My Understanding was that Mr Beal should vacate his room for your collections at once, but it seems that we supposed he was when told when you wished to come in. I have addressed a note to him to day to the effect that you are to have it at once.

If however you prefer to begin your deposits in the room Mr Iscehn has used - viz that which is S. West of the corner, you can have that at once: only signify your wishes. Perhaps it may be necessary for Mr J.

to pass thro that to the corner room if so, there can be a screen placed so as to shut off the body of the room. I have written to him to that effect.

Yours truly
B. D. Lowrey
